Dear Valued Dart Customer:

Due to significantly increased demand, along with ongoing labor shortages at the plants, Dart Container is experiencing supply interruptions on 20RL EPS Foam Lid. Until we can recover from these supply interruptions, we are not able to provide you with this item. The table below provides potential alternative items.

Supply Interruption Item	Description	Alternative Item	Description
20RL	EPS Foam Lid	20JL	Translucent Lid Vent

We are working diligently to resolve ongoing supply interruptions and will advise you as soon as we have more information regarding when we can provide the 20RL again. In the meantime, your Dart Sales Representative will assist you with ordering the alternative items or identifying other products that may suit your needs.

We apologize for the disruption to your business, and we thank you for understanding.

Bob Novak, Executive Vice President Sales & Marketing
