Dear Greg,

The DiNapoli family have been providing quality operators and wholesalers with Italian Style Tomato Products grown on farms and ranches in California for three generations. We work hard to provide a superior value. We aggressively manage our costs while producing a flavorful, high yielding canned tomato in the tradition of our Italian ancestors.

Attached is our new Price List effective for shipments/pick-ups on and after September 9th, 2019 (orders received on & after August 30th, 2019).

Three significant production inputs; tin plated steel, processing tomatoes and labor have all increased since last summer and therefore must be passed on in the form of a price increase.

We appreciate your continued support.

Sincerely,

Betty Sullivan
