Re: W Packaging Domestic Price Adjustment November 2021

Dear Valued Customers,

Upon further assessment and continued price increases on raw materials and labor, we will be implementing a domestic price adjustment effective 11/1/2021.

The adjustments will take effect for all domestic items regardless of location, or order type. All orders received, either will call from the warehouse or shipped via carrier with an effective date on and after 11/01/2021 will be subject to adjusted pricing.

Attached is your updated FOB Colton generic house item price lists. Regarding custom domestic items, we are diligently reviewing our costs and always strive to provide exemplary product and service at a competitive price. We value our customers and wanted to inform you of price adjustments for custom items as soon as possible.
